To whom it may concern,

As the International President for Alpha Phi, I recommend Raegan Ford Interior Design as an outstanding interior design firm for sorority projects.

We worked together on a large scale renovation project in Tucson, Arizona for the Alpha Phi chapter at the University of Arizona. As an alumnus of this chapter, the memories and history of the chapter were important to myself and my fellow alumni. Raegan was instrumental in designing a home that blended Alpha Phi tradition with current design trends that are appreciated by the young chapter members today.

Our Alpha Phi house at the University of Arizona has been featured in Phoenix Home and Garden Magazine and was recently recognized as one of the top 20 most beautiful sorority houses by Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Raegan Ford Interior Design understands the requirements of designing for a sorority house and I am confident in recommending her firm.

Thank you,

Renee Zainer
